AIMS OF THE SCOTTISH GLASS SOCIETY

The Scottish Glass Society was formed in 1979 and promotes the development of the art and craftsmanship of glass making in Scotland in its many forms. Our aim is to advance the public appreciation of glass making as an art form.

HOW WE ACHIEVE OUR AIMS

- Promoting Scottish glass artists via our website.
- Hosting an annual exhibition.
- Awarding prizes for new work.
- Offering small artist bursaries.
- Organising lectures and visits.
- Producing an annual journal.
- Promoting discussion among artists and glass enthusiasts.

FIND OUT MORE

You can find out more about the Scottish Glass Society at www.scottishglasssociety.com
Members of the Scottish Glass Society receive their own page on the website to promote their work and share projects and ideas.

GET INVOLVED

We have a small committee of dedicated volunteers who help make the society work for its members. If you would like to find out more about ways to get involved with the committee speak to a committee member or drop us a line via <http://scottishglasssociety.com/contact-us/>

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

- The opportunity to exhibit and sell your work in the SGS annual exhibition.
- Eligibility to apply for the artist bursaries.
- A personal web page on the SGS website.
- Opportunities to participate in educational trips to glass studios, exhibitions and workshops.
- Regular information about events and exhibitions.
- Spotlights on SGS members' work.
- Opportunities to meet and share ideas, technical advice and information with practicing glass artists.
- Opportunities to become a committee member and gain insight into many aspects of professional glass marketing, exhibition development and set up.

TYPES OF MEMBERSHIP

- Student Member – on a full time related further education course.
- Individual Member – artist working with glass.
- Corporate Member – organisations & businesses.
- Friend of the Scottish Glass Society – not an artist but enthusiast in glass art (you can't exhibit with this category of membership).
